INCREASE OF ADDITIONAL SANCTIONS

Ban from participating in public tenders up to 2 years for companies hiring false independent workers.

It is now foreseen the increase of the additional sanctions aiming at companies that repeatedly hire false independent workers.

Sanctions now include the ban from benefiting from financial support, subsidies or benefits of tax or contributory nature or derived from European funds, granted by public entities, for a period up to 2 years.

Companies shall also be excluded from public auctions and tenders during the same period.
