

Legal Shots

Parental Rights: New complementary leave

Father and mother can work part-time for 3 months.

As of May, the parental rights regime has a new complementary leave to care for a child or adopted child up to 6 years of age: fathers and mothers can work part-time for 3 months, with a normal working time equal to half of the full time, as long as each parent takes the full leave.

Meet our Team:

