Collective Dismissal: Increase of the compensation

The increase of the compensation will have impact on other forms of termination.

The increase of the compensation due to collective dismissal, from 12 days to 14 days of base salary and seniority allowance, will have impact on other forms of termination, such as in the compensation for the termination of a service commission, in the termination due to the transfer of workplace that causes serious damage to the employee, situations of insolvency and company recovery, among others.
