

Legal Shots

WORKING ABROAD: MORE INFORMATION

Information on allowances and reimbursement of expenses is now mandatory for employees working outside Portugal.

The range of information that a company must provide to an employee working outside Portugal (but still under the Portuguese law) was substantially extended and now includes the identification of the State or States where the work is to be performed, the allowances inherent to the posting and the official website of the host State, among others.

Meet our Team:

