

Legal Shots

Protection to Caregiver Employees

Exemption from the obligation to perform overtime work and protection in case of dismissal.

Caregiver employees are not required to provide overtime for as long as the assistance is necessary. Moreover, dismissal of a caregiver employee requires a prior opinion from the Commission for Equality at Work and Employment.

Meet our Team:

