José Jácome has taken over the coordination of SRS Legal's dispute resolution department. With more than 30 years' experience and a high reputation in litigation, the SRS partner succeeds José Carlos Soares Machado.

"It is with great pride and enthusiasm that I take on this mission, confident that our talented team will continue to excel and exceed expectations in the face of the challenges of this new stage of the project," says José Jácome.

"The renewal of leadership and the diversification of services reflect the institutional matrix of SRS Legal and reaffirm our commitment to excellence in the provision of legal services, with a permanent openness to innovation that allows us to anticipate and respond to the needs of an increasingly sophisticated and demanding market," said César Sá Esteves and Octávio Castelo Paulo, managing partners of SRS Legal.
